SimplyBenefits

Simply Benefits is a 100% digital Employee Benefits Third-Party Payor (TPP) that allows retirees to take better control of their benefits management on their own dedicated, user-friendly portal. Simply is responsible for:

- Adjudicating and Paying Claims
- Premium Billing
- Claims administration

Definitions

Reasonable & Customary (R&C)

Refers to the maximum allowable amount that an insurance carrier or claims payor will reimburse on a particular service or item. This amount reflects the average cost associated with this service or product in a specific geographical region.

Unlimited

Means there is no set limit but is subject to Reasonable and Customary Charges.

Coinsurance (Copay)

The portion, as a percentage of the claim, that the insurer is responsible for paying. The Insured is responsible for the remaining balance. For example: 80% coinsurance means the insured is responsible for paying 20% of the claim.

Things To Consider

This is a summary of benefits and does not include all coverages. This summary may contain inaccuracies. Please review the full booklet wording prior to purchasing a plan. Please contact us directly for full coverage details or download the booklet from our website.

All calendar year or lifetime maximums are per person, unless otherwise stated.

You must be a resident of Canada and be covered under the provincial health plan in your province of residence to apply for this retiree plan. If you apply for family coverage, your spouse and dependent children must also have provincial healthcare coverage.

For individuals or dependents to be eligible for any benefits under the Emergency Travel Benefit, they must be age 84 or less. Travel coverage will terminate at age 85. Coverage must be in effect prior to departure. If individuals are out of the country when the plan goes into effect, the travel coverage will not go into effect until they return to their province of residence.

Extended healthcare coverage for a dependent who is hospitalized on the date they become eligible for coverage, other than a newborn child, will be delayed until the first day immediately following his/her discharge from the hospital. To qualify, you must be actively at work on the date of retirement. Persons on disability will not qualify.

Premium Payment

Premiums are withdrawn from your bank account on the 10th of every month by pre-authorized debit starting on the date your plan becomes active. All invoices are generated on the 1st of every month. Your plan will stay active as long as premiums are paid.

Cancellation of Coverage

You must notify us in writing of your intent to terminate coverage at least 30 days prior to the requested termination date.
